CONTEMPLATIVE PILGRIMAGE SPIRITUAL RETREAT AT CHARTRES CATHEDRAL

SEPT 26-OCT 2, 2011

An extraordinary opportunity for spiritual growth.

Following in the footsteps of centuries of pilgrims, we will spend time each day at the Chartres Cathedral praying and seeking God.

“I was glad when they said to me,
‘Let us go the house of the Lord.’”
Psalm 122:1

Are you ready to take the next step with God?

An Extraordinary Opportunity

By utilizing the incredible resources of the UNESCO world-heritage site of the Chartres Cathedral in France, you will have the opportunity to deepen your relationship with God.

This week-long experience is designed to support Christians who value holistic spiritual growth, are open to contemplative prayer, and want to serve others out of a fuller experience of God's love.

Group sessions will incorporate ritual, visual presentations, song, teaching, small group discussion, and prayer. Special pilgrimage experiences will include: praying on the labyrinth after hours; a worship service in the ancient crypt chapel, a six-mile walking pilgrimage, and optional cathedral window and roof tours.

Retreat Leaders

The Rev. Jill K. H. Geoffrion, Ph.D., has published seven books on labyrinth prayer, two of which focus on praying with the labyrinth in the Chartres Cathedral.

Jill's artistic leadership style is enthusiastic, visual, devotional, and inviting. She loves guiding pilgrims to enter as deeply as possible into the beauty and love of God.

The Rev. Timothy C. Geoffrion, Ph.D., has taught on the New Testament and Christian spirituality in colleges and seminaries around the world. His two most recent books, The Spirit-Led Leader and One Step at a Time: A Pilgrim's Guide to Spirit-Led Living, express the heart of his teaching ministry and spiritual life coaching work.

Tim's engaging style blends thought-provoking questions, relevant input, group interaction, and guidance for personal reflection. He loves teaching and helping others grow in every dimension of their life.

Jill and Tim enjoy using their complementary gifts as they minister together. They will be joined by several other well-qualified leaders.
